PATRIOT OF THE MONTH: James Sidney Stewart

James Stewart joined the US Army in 1948 when he was seventeen, and served until 1952. He was assigned to Artillery in the 82nd Battalion of the 1st Cavalry Division. After training, he was sent to Korea. He was wounded twice, earning two Purple Hearts.

After leaving the Army, he worked for General Motors in St. Louis, Missouri; Indiana; and Flint, Michigan. Service related illness forced him to retire.

He married Marcella Smith, and they have four children. His daughter, Clarissa, is a member of Poplar Bluff Chapter, NSDAR.

James is a member of the Sour Dough Chapter Sons of the American Revolution in Montana, and the Lutheran Church. One of his hobbies is hunting.

Louise Shelton of the Poplar Bluff Chapter, proudly nominates her brother, James Sidney Stewart, for the MSSDAR Patriot of the Month.
