

Missouri State Society Daughters of the American Revolution

Patriot of the Month, October 2006 Lloyd W. Young

LTC Lloyd Young, US Army Ret., joined the U.S. Army in 1951. He was attached to the 140th Regiment of Infantry and the 135th Engineer Group. He served in the United States, Europe, Asia, and Central America. He received a BA degree from Columbia Graduate Command and General Staff College. He is an Army aviator, rated in both fixed wing and rotary wing aircraft. He is also a graduate of the Basic Infantry Officers course; Army Aviation Tactics course; Engineer Officers Basic course; Construction, Planning, and Operations course; Chemical, Biological, and Radiological course; Civil Disturbance course; Senior Officers Preventative Logistics course; and Senior Commanders Orientation course. While serving in Japan, Col. Young was given credit for proving the concept of the Light Infantry Division with support of Corps troops.

Col. Young received many awards, honors, and citations during his 36 year career including:

- Meritorious Service Medal with second award
- Army Commendation Medal
- Army Achievement Medal
- Long Service Medal

Upon his retirement in 1988, Col. Young was recognized by President Ronald Reagan for his service and received a Senate Resolution.

After retirement, Col. Young attended and graduated from the Police Academy and became Chief of the Police Reserve in Scott City, MO. He also worked as a private investigator for a local law firm. He served his church, Eisleben Lutheran, as an elder for six years. He loves to watch movies and TV.

Col. Young and his wife, Shirley, have two sons, three grandchildren, and a great-grandchild.

Shirley Young proudly nominated her husband, Lloyd, for Patriot of the Month. Shirley is a member of the John Guild Chapter.