

Missouri State Society Daughters of the American Revolution
Patriot of the Month
May 2013

Joe Brown

Sponsored by:

Rhoda Fairchild Chapter DAR

Joe Brown graduated from Carthage High School in 1962. He entered the United States Army in January 1969, and did his basic training at Ft. Leonard Wood. He was sent to Ft. Gordon in Georgia for radio operator training.

Joe served in Da Nang, South Viet Nam as a Spec 4 Radio Teletype Operator and was honorably discharged in 1970. After coming back home he completed his Bachelor of Science Degree in Electrical Engineering at Rolla School of Mines. He worked in civilian life for a truck leasing firm.

Joe's family includes a sister, a niece and nephew along with their four children. He is a member of Faith Evangelical Lutheran Church where he serves as financial secretary. Joe enjoys collecting antique radios and is a member of the NRA.

The Rhoda Fairchild Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution wish to extend their gratitude and thanks to Joe Brown for his service to our country.