Richard C. "Skip" Mange joined the U. S. Army in October 8, 1962. He was a Captain in the Corps of Engineers and spent three years in Germany in the headquarters of an engineer maintenance and supply group and as a company commander of a line company. He was deployed from Fort Benning, Georgia, to Viet Nam, and was a company commander of an Engineering Construction Company.

He received the Army Commendation Medal for meritorious service in Germany, the Army Commendation Medal for meritorious service in Viet Nam, National Defense Medal, and the Viet Nam Service Medal.

Skip married Nancy Beeson and they are the parents of four children and ten grandchildren. In civilian life, he has been a consulting engineer, land surveyor, high school math and science teacher, and served his community as an elected official. Currently he is a consulting engineer and owner of a construction/development company.

The members of the St. Louis–Jefferson Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution are proud to nominate Richard C. Mange as Patriot of the Month and extend their gratitude and thanks for his service to our country.
