Louis graduated from high school in 1964. He entered the United States Air Force in July, 1965, going to basic training at San Antonio, Texas. He attended Technical School in Amarillo, Texas. He was assigned to Wheelus Air Force Base, Tripoli, Libya. His last duty station was Altus Air Force Base, Oklahoma where he was discharged in July, 1969. During his four years in service he received various medals and ribbons.

After his discharge, Louis went to work for the Frisco Railroad. He married his wife, Cheryl, in 1968. They have two sons and three grandchildren.

Louis is a very active member of the Sons of the American Revolution, the American Legion, and the Missouri Military Funeral Honors detail.

Neosho Daughters are proud and honored to recognize Louis Elbert as Patriot of the Month for his patriotic service to our great nation.
