Chapter

Roger Olsson enlisted in the United States Army Reserve in 1954, attending basic training at Ft. Leonard Wood, MO. Following specialized training at Ft. Monmouth, NJ, Roger was deployed to Nagoya, Japan as a microwave radio repairman. He was honorably discharged in 1962.

Following his deployment to Japan, he attended DeVry University in Chicago, eventually working as a technical writer of operation and maintenance manuals for aircraft and support equipment for McDonnell-Douglas.

Roger was married to his wife Shirley for 60 years before her passing. They had three children and 10 grandchildren.

Caroline Close Stuart Daughters are very proud to honor and recognize Roger Olsson as Patriot of the Month for his dedication, patriotism and service to our great nation.
