Tedd W. Hodges

United States Navy

Sponsored by:
Clark County
Chapter

Tedd Hodges enlisted in the United States Navy in December 1970. Following basic training, Tedd's duty stations included Naval Air Station Pensacola, FL, Patuxent Naval Test Center, MD and Naval Air Station Glenview, IL. He served as a pilot, aircraft commander and mission commander. He was honorably discharged in July 1979.

In civilian life, Tedd and his wife Gloria have five children. He taught science and biology at Wyaconda High School and farmed for many years. He is a deacon of his local Baptist Church and has volunteered at church camp, teaching woodworking to children.

Clark County Daughters are very proud of Tedd Hodges and honored to recognize him as Patriot of the Month for his dedicated patriotic service to his community and our great nation.
