Chapter

Emmitt E. "Bo" Hampton, Jr. enlisted in the United States Navy in 1985 completing basic training at Naval Station Great Lakes, IL, with additional training in Florida and Groton, CT. His primary duty as a fire control technician was to maintain the electronic equipment used in submarine weapons systems.

For his service, Bo received numerous awards, medals and citations during his 20 year career, including Navy Commendation Medal, Navy Achievement Medal (x5), Joint Meritorious Medal (x2), Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal, National Defense Medal (x2) Sea Service Ribbon (x3) War on Terror Medal, and Humanitarian Service Medal.

In civilian life, Bo is a shop/equipment manager for HRI, serves as adjutant of his local VFW and is a member of his local American Legion.

Meyongo Daughters are very proud of Emmitt E. Hampton, Jr. and honored to recognize him as Patriot of the Month for his dedicated patriotic service to his community and our great nation.
