St. Charles
Chapter

Brad Campbell enlisted in the United States Air Force in April 1985. Duty stations included Anderson Air Force Base, Guam; David-Monthan, Tucson, Arizona; Lakenheath Air Base, United Kingdom; and Elmendorf Air Force Base, Alaska. During his service he was assigned to the Special Forces

For his service, Brad was awarded the Meritorious Services Medal (x2), Air Force Commendation Medals (x4), 4 Achievement Medals, 7 Good Conduct Medals, 2 Joint Meritorious Unit Awards, 6 Outstanding Unit Awards, 2 National Defense Service Medals, 2 Southwest Asia Services Medals, Global War on Terrorism Services Medal, Humanitarian Services Medal, Kuwait Liberation Medal, and NATO Medal.

The most interesting thing he did was provide security and meet President Ronald Reagan. The best piece of advice he received was to never be afraid to make a decision. It's better to make a bad decision than no decision at all.

In his civilian career Brad is Chief, Management Operations Branch/Chief of Security for Defense Information Technology Contracting Organization of the DoD. He is member of the NRA and Fisher of Men.

St. Charles Daughters are proud of MSgt. Brad Campbell and honored to recognize him as Patriot of the Month for his dedicated patriotic service to his community and our great nation.
