After her language training, Jill had more training at Goodfellow Air Force Base in TX. Jill was training to be a Russian Linguist and states that learning Russian was the hardest but most fascinating thing ever! After serving two years, Jill was discharged early due to an injury.

Jill was awarded Top Secret Security Clearance and Russian Language Certification.

Jill mentions that the best piece of advice she has received is, "Do what you're told, keep your head down, and pay close attention."

Jill is currently an account manager for a flooring manufacturer and handles accounts for nationwide gym chains and major hotels.

Jill is a member of the Alexander Doniphan Chapter NSDAR.

Jill is an Army Veteran, E-3 (PFC), military intelligence (Russian Linguist) from 1994-1996. She was discharged early due to injury, but proud to have served her country. Jill comes from a long line of Veterans as well! Jill's father served in the Navy, her brother, step-father, and grandfather were all Army, and her husband is a Marine Veteran and her daughter served in the Army! Jill's step-father is retired Army and his father was retired Army.

Alexander Doniphan Daughters are proud to honor and recognize Jill Grove as Patriot of the Month for her very patriotic and dedicated service to our great nation.
