PATRIOT OF THE MONTH

Captain Jon T. Robinson, USAF

Captain Jon T. Robinson graduated from Cape Central High School, Cape Girardeau, in 1991. During his college career at Southeast Missouri State University, he participated in the Air Force ROTC program. He graduated in 1996 with a degree in Mass Communications.

He was promoted to 1st Lt while serving at Valdosta, Georgia in 1998 and to Captain while at Misawa Air Base in Japan in 2000.

He has received the following medals:

- Air Force Achievement medal while serving as Flight Commander of Traffic-Management Offices and Vehicle Management Readiness and as Flight Commander of Combat Readiness and Resources—1998
- Air Force Achievement medal while serving as the Projects Officer for America Day in Japan—2000
- Joint Service Achievement medal while working in the Joint Movement Center of Logistics and Readiness in Stuttgart, Germany—2001
- Air Force Commendation Medal for Tour of Duty as Flight Commander of Traffic-Management Offices and Vehicle Management in Japan—2002
- National Defense Medal in Italy—2003
- NATO Medal in Italy—2003

He has also received the following awards:

- 35th Logistics Group Commissioning Grade Officer for the quarter presented twice-- 1999 and 2001
- Squadron Commissioning Grade Officer of the year—2000 and 2001
- Commissioning Grade Officer of the Detachment 3 of the 721st Air Mobility Operations Group in Italy—2001 and 2002
- Expeditionary Wing Commissioning Grade Officer of Kyrgyzstan's Manas Air Base—2004

Captain Robinson has now returned to the States, after a three-year tour in Italy, to finish his Master's Degree in Logistic Readiness Operations. He is married to Cary Ellen (Nall) and they have one son, Ian, two years old.

Captain Robinson was proudly nominated by his mother, Nancy N. Robinson, who is a member of the John Guild chapter. She is a past Regent of the Joel Pace Chapter of Mt. Vernon, Illinois.
