Kenneth W. Alexander served in World War II in the United States Army Air Force. He was inducted into service at Lincoln, Nebraska in 1943 and discharged at Shreveport, Louisiana in 1945.

Throughout these years, Kenneth was extensively trained in the B-24 and B-25 and the B-20 bombers. His training took place in Liberal, Kansas; Altus and Chickasha, Oklahoma; Lincoln, Nebraska; University of Indianapolis, Indiana. He received his flight training in Shreveport, Louisiana.

While Kenneth was at Shreveport, Louisiana, he was discharged as a 2nd Lieutenant with his Certificate of Discharge and his "Wings." With all of his training, he was ready for deployment when the war ended.

Following his discharge, Kenneth graduated from the University of California, Los Angeles. He was employed as a Computer Analyst in a large lumber company in Los Angeles for five years. Returning to Missouri in 1954, he worked for the United States Postal Service for twenty nine years before he retired.

Kenneth married Doris Thurman in Atlanta, Missouri, on August 10, 1947. They have three daughters, two grandsons, and one granddaughter. He is a member of the Masonic Lodge, Christian Church, and the American Legion.

Doris Alexander is a charter member of the Schuyler Chapter DAR.
