Raymond Stockwell enlisted in the United States Army in 1958. He was stationed at the Army Complex on the Island of Okinawa, Japan, from 1958 to 1960. He was assigned to Special Services on the island and served as manager of the Army Rangers Baseball Club. He also played football for the Army Rangers team. The teams played bowl games against other military service teams. Ray was honorably discharged in 1960. He was in the Inactive Reserves from 1960-1968.

Ray earned the Good Conduct Medal and the Marksmanship Medal. In civilian life he has had a career in marketing and publishing sales. He and his wife Margaret are involved in the history and future of their community. They have written "The Chronicles," a history of the lake community where they live, and have been involved in restoring a circa 1840 family cemetery, part of an original Platte Purchase Homestead. Ray also enjoys restoring classic boats. He has published articles on classic boats and enjoys recording history on the subject.

The White Alloe Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution are proud to nominate Raymond Clifford Stockwell as Patriot of the Month and extend their gratitude and thanks for his service to our country.
