St. Louis – Jefferson Chapter

Sgt Caleb Patton is an infantry marine with specialty training as a mortarman who has served our country since March of 2007. During this time he has been stationed at Camp Lejeune in North Carolina, Iraq, Haiti, Kuwait and Afghanistan. Sgt Patton has been awarded the Navy and Marine achievement medals, two combat action ribbons, two good conduct medals, four sea service medals, the NATO joint task force, and two certificates of commendation.

Sgt Patton is part owner and chief of operations for a private security firm, Iron Protection Group, LLC.

The members of the St. Louis-Jefferson Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution are proud to nominate Caleb Patton as Patriot of the Month. They extend their gratitude for his service to our country.
