Marvin Vogler
United States Army Air Corps

Marvin Vogler graduated from Lincoln, Missouri High School in 1946. He enlisted in the Army Air Corps at Fort Riley, Kansas on July 18, 1947 and received basic training at San Antonio, Texas. Following basic training, he went by troop train to Chanute Air Force Base, Illinois to attend Airplane and Mechanic, Jet Propulsion School. Then he was assigned to Headquarters & Headquarters Squadron 20th Air Base Group at Shaw Air Force Base, Sumpter, South Carolina. Marvin was a line mechanic for the flight line at Shaw Air Force Base and later received more schooling at the Aircraft Electrical Mechanics School, Chanute Air Force Base. On June 2, 1950, Sergeant Vogler was discharged at Shaw Air Force Base, South Carolina and returned home to Lincoln by bus. He received the Good Conduct Medal.

After returning home, Marvin worked in the wheat harvest in Kansas. His next place of employment was for a lumber company in Northeast Missouri. While in that area, he met and married Carolyn Greening of Shelbina on December 29, 1951. While working at the lumber company, he also worked as a service station attendant in Shelbina for five and a half years. He eventually quit both places of employment and became employed by the Uregas Company and worked for them in Moberly and Kirksville, Missouri and Quincy, Illinois. When Uregas sold out to Ferrell Gas, he was Operation Manager overseeing seventeen plants. After the sellout, he began employment with Botkins Trucking, driving a truck until he retired on May 10, 2011.

Marvin and his wife have four children, nine grandchildren, and seven great-grandchildren. He is a member of St Pius X Church and a lifetime member of the Knights of Columbus.

Armstrong Chapter Daughters are proud to nominate Marvin Vogler as Patriot of the Month and extend their gratitude and appreciation for his patriotic service to our great nation.
