My most meaningful experience was my relationship with our company Commander, Colonel John Henney. He was a great example of a leader, husband, father, and a man of God.

Felton was discharged in April, 1994, from active duty and served in an inactive duty status for another two years at Whiteman Air Force Base.

They discuss a variety of topics from how to be a good sport, how to make good decisions, and avoid negative influences. He emphasizes skills for life that many boys need to practice such as using good manners and how to treat others with respect and kindness.

Felton has a gift for poetry and rap. His messages are uplifting, comforting, and often faith-based.

Felton and his wife, Tamara, have one son.
