Donald Cass graduated high school in 1943, and enlisted in the United States Merchant Marine in December, 1944, where he served until after World War II.

In December, 1948, he was inducted into the United States Army serving for 33 months. He attended basic training at Camp Chaffee, Arkansas. He was transferred to Virginia for six weeks at the Quarter Master School. In San Antonio, Texas, he was the Senior Personnel Specialist attaining the rank of Sergeant.

Following his honorable discharge Donald worked in Nebraska for 16 years. Returning to his home town in Missouri, he became a self-employed fencing contractor. For eight years, he was the "Gofer-Chauffeur-Lifter-Fixer" at a local nursing home, retiring at age 78.

Schuyler Daughters are proud to honor and recognize Donald Cass as Patriot of the Month for his dedicated patriotic service to our great nation.
