PATRIOT OF THE MONTH

Capt. Jonathan Luke St. Clair

Jonathan St. Clair graduated from Clark County High School in 1997. He attended Western Illinois University and graduated in August 2001. He joined the US Army and graduated from Officer Training through the Ranger school in 2003. He was assigned to the 18th Infantry Regiment in the 1st Infantry Division.

Jon was first sent to Germany. In January 2004, he was sent to Iraq as a 1st Lt. He served as a platoon leader for eight months. During this time, he led his squad on approximately 200 missions. His platoon also worked with the Iraqi people to find, build, and restore their water wells. They also made friends with the Iraqi children and helped train Iraqi police.

Jon was promoted to Captain and sent to Command Headquarters, which was in one of Saddam's former palaces. Jon left Iraq in January, 2005 to serve in Germany. He is currently in school in Arizona. He will be there until July, and does not yet know his next assignment. Jon is 27 years old and single.

Jon has received the following honors/citations:

- ◇ Ranger Tab
- ◇ Combat Infantry Badge
- ◇ Bronze Star Medal for Service
- ◇ Expert Infantry Badge
- ◇ Parachute Badge
- ◇ Army Commendation Medal
- ◇ Army Achievement Medal
- ◇ Army Reserve Component Achievement Medal
- ◇ National Defense Service Medal
- ◇ 1st Infantry Division Combat Patch

Jon is proudly nominated for the Missouri State Society, Daughters of the American Revolution's Patriot of the Month by his mother, Helen St. Clair, who is a member of Clark County Chapter.
