PATRIOT OF THE MONTH: James "Jim" Mitchell

James "Jim" Mitchell joined the US Army Air Corps in March 1943. He was attached to Central Flying Command as a Trainer. He served at Wichita Falls, San Antonio, Ballinger, San Angelo, and Childress, all in Texas, training men for combat during World War II. In October 1945, he joined the Army Reserves, retiring in 1965.

Jim worked at McDonnell for twenty-five years in the Aviation Systems Command. Now retired from McDonnell, Jim is a major assistant to MSSDAR, overseeing the maintenance and use of Coldwater Cemetery in St. Louis County. He is also the President of the local chapter of the Military Officers Association of America.

Jim's late wife, Carolyn was a long time member of the St. Charles DAR Chapter. His daughter, Laura is a chapter Regent in west Tennessee.

Diane Borgman of the St. Charles Chapter proudly nominates Jim Mitchell for Patriot of the Month.
