

Missouri State Society Daughters of the American Revolution

Patriot of the Month; April 2009

Austin E. Robertson

The members of Armstrong Chapter NSDAR are pleased to honor Austin E. Robertson of Columbia, Missouri as a Patriot of the Month.

Austin graduated from high school in Mountain Grove, Missouri. He received a Bachelor of Science degree in Philosophy and Religion from Baylor University in Waco, Texas and his Masters Degree from Dallas Theological Seminary in Dallas, Texas.

Austin enlisted in the Army Medical Corp in February of 1953 and saw duty at Ft. Sam Houston in San Antonio, Texas and at Camp Pickett, near Blackstone, Virginia. He was honorably discharged in February of 1955 with the rank of Corporal.

Austin and his wife, Nancy, have three daughters and eight grandchildren. He taught in Missouri at the Pattonville and Salisbury Public Schools, the Heritage Christian Academy in Moberly, as well as the Sharon Christian School in Armstrong. Austin also farmed near Armstrong, Missouri and has been a pastor about 35 years. He is a member of the Dardenne Baptist Church in O'Fallon, Missouri and has spent a lifetime of service dedicated to the betterment of mankind.

Armstrong Chapter thanks Austin E. Robertson for his service to our country.