Helen Hubbard was born Helen Catherine Wright, January 8, 1920, in Maple Grove, Missouri. She attended Kansas State Teachers College, graduating in 1941, with a degree in nutrition. She served her internship in dietetics at Fitzsimmons General Army Hospital in Aurora, Colorado for one year.

In 1945, Helen was inducted into the United States Army as a Lieutenant. She completed her basic training at Ft. Benjamin Harrison, Indianapolis, Indiana. From there she served as a hospital dietitian in the Army Medical Corps at Crile Hospital, Cleveland, Ohio and Wakeman General Hospital, Camp Atterbury, Indiana. She transferred to Percy Jones General Hospital, Battle Creek, Michigan and was discharged from there after serving two years in the Army.

Helen's medals include:

- World War II Victory Medal

Helen and Adolph M. Hubbard, a former Marine, were married in 1949. She worked in a Jewish Hospital and the student dining hall in Stanford, California. Helen and Adolph lived in Palo Alto, California; Wilmington, North Carolina and retired in Missouri in 1985. They have two sons, five grandchildren, and one great grandson. Adolph passed away in 2004.

Helen is a member of the First Christian Church. She is also a member of the American Dietetic Association, American Heart Association, and Nutrition Consultants for Nursing Homes. Helen is a member of the Rhoda Fairchild DAR Chapter where she has served as Vice-Regent and on many committees. She faithfully reads the President General's message at the monthly chapter meetings. Helen has decorated the DAR float for many parades.

Helen and Ann Garrigues, who traveled as Helen's guardian and is also a Rhoda Fairchild member, went on an Honor Flight to Washington DC to visit the World War II memorial and other historical sites in November 2011.
