In 1963, Lisa married Mark, who was a pilot in the U.S. Air Force. They have two children. Mark retired after thirty years of combined active duty and reserve service.

Lisa has enjoyed the role of homemaker and raising her children. She worked for a few years as a classroom para-professional in her local school district. For a short time, she was a substitute in the same school district. She is involved in volunteer work with various organizations. Lisa's hobbies include Bible studies, genealogy research, reading, traveling, and spending time with her family on the east coast.

Lisa became a member of the Blue Springs DAR Chapter in July 2010, where she has already assumed an active role.
