Valley of the Meramec Chapter

Richard Slater joined the United States Navy on June 6, 1943, and completed his military service on May 15, 1946. He was a Seaman 3rd Class assigned to aviation ordnance in Puerto Rico.

Richard and his wife, Gwendolyn, have four children, ten grandchildren, and sixteen great-grandchildren. After completing his military service Richard worked in construction for seven years. Then for twenty-eight years he was with the Christian Missionary Alliance.

The members of the Valley of the Meramec Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution are proud to nominate Richard Slater as Patriot of the Month and extend gratitude and thanks for his service.
