Ramon Mora
United States Air Force

Sponsored by:
Warrensburg
Chapter

Both of Ramon's parents were born in Mexico. His father came to the United States at the age of 25. His mother came to the United States at the age of four. Ramon was born in Kansas.

At the age of 21, Ramon enlisted in the United States Air Force. He was stationed at numerous military installations during his 27 ½ military career. His duty stations were at Mountain Home Air Force Base, Idaho; Matagorda Island Range, Texas; McConnell Air Force Base, Kansas; Murphy Dome Radar Station, Alaska; Red Horse Civil Engineering Squadron, Florida; Da Nang, Vietnam; Forbes Air Force Base, Kansas; Cannon Air Force Base, New Mexico; Clark Air Base, Philippines; Randolph Air Force Base, Texas; Aviano Air Base, Italy; Davis Monthan Air Force Base, Arizona; Osan Air Base, Korea, and Whiteman Air Force Base, Missouri.

He served as a Civil Engineer, Heavy Equipment Operator, Wing/Base Pavement, and a Construction Equipment Superintendent.

His medals include: Air Force Commendation Medal w/1 device; Air Force Achievement Medal; Air Force Good Conduct Medal; National Defense Medal, Vietnam Service Medal, Air Force Overseas Short Tour w/3 devices; Air Force Overseas Long Tour, Air Force Longevity Services Award, Non Commissioned Officer Education Award.

Ramon married Ermelinda and they are the proud parents of two sons, one daughter, and one grandson. Their daughter also served in the Air Force. Of all the places Ramon was stationed, he and his wife liked Italy best.

When Ramon left Italy, his unit had a special occasion for him. His Commanding Officer, a Lieutenant Colonel, stated "he had never met a more people-oriented non-commissioned officer than Master Sergeant Mora."

After Ramon retired, he worked in quality control for an aluminum manufacturing company. He stays involved with membership in the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Moose Lodge, Masonic Lodge, and the Catholic Church. He is Honor Guard Captain for military funerals.

Warrensburg Daughters are proud and honored to recognize Ramon Mora as Patriot of the Month for his patriotism and dedicated service to our great nation.
