Chapter

Entering the United States Navy in September, 2009, Paul currently serves in the United States Navy Reserve. During his active duty, he served as a Corpsman at a small boat command in San Diego, California. He was in charge of all medical inventories for his command and subordinate commands for medical readiness. He was responsible for Cardiopulmonary resuscitation training for hundreds of Navy personnel. Paul was a safety standby for gun training exercises.

Paul is currently enrolled as a full time student at his local university. He is also a United States Navy Selected Reservist.

St. Louis-Jefferson Daughters are proud and honored to recognize Paul Powell as Patriot of the Month for his dedicated patriotic service for our great nation.
