Chapter

Melinda entered the United States Navy in 1987. Her duty stations included Naval Air Station Meridian, MS and Naval Air Station Point Mugu, CA. Melinda expanded her education and experience as her naval duties varied from aviation storekeeper, remedial physical fitness examiner and flight line taxi specialist.

Melinda's most memorial experience during her service was guarding the plane of President Ronald Reagan during his many trips to California.

Today, Melinda works as a human resource manager, is married and has two children.

Osage Daughters are very proud of Melinda McAloose and honored to recognize her as Patriot of the Month for her dedicated patriotic service to his community and our great nation.
