

Missouri State Society Daughters of the American Revolution Proudly Honors

Patriot of the Month

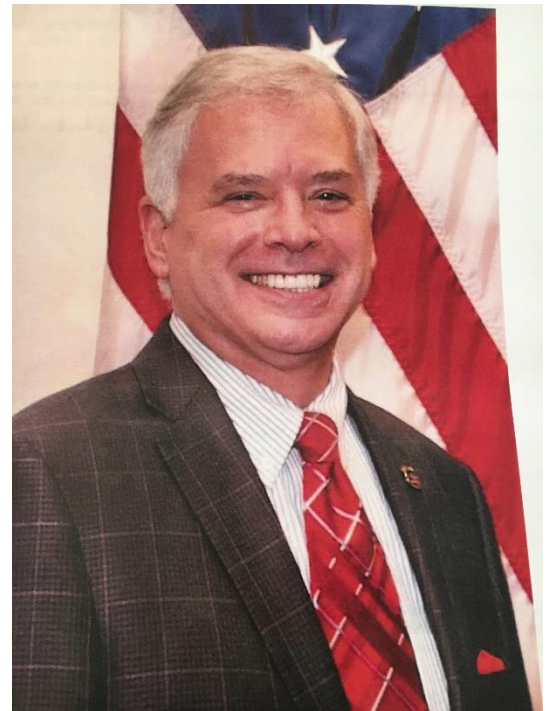

October 2019

Roderick M. Cox

United States Army

Sponsored by:
Saint Charles
Chapter

Roderick Cox entered the United States Army as a distinguished military graduate in 1981, serving as a commissioned regular Army officer. His service included combat, peacekeeping, humanitarian and diplomatic duties in the Middle East, Africa, Central and Southeast Europe, Central Asia and the Far East. His leadership assignments included service as the director of the U.S. Army Combat Studies Institute, chief of Operations Group for the U.S. Army Battle Command Training Program and chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff's Professor of Military Studies.

For his service, Roderick received over 40 awards and decorations including Defense Superior Service Medal, Legion of Merit Medal, Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal, NATO Medal and Army Superior Unit Award. He received an honorable discharge in September 2013.

In civilian life, Roderick served as district director for the U.S. Small Business Administration. He currently serves as president and CEO of the Command General Staff College Foundation. He is a legacy life member of the VFW, a life member of DAV and a member of his local American Legion. He also holds membership in a number of other organizations and foundations. He and his wife Dru have one daughter.

Saint Charles Daughters are very proud to honor and recognize Colonel Roderick M. Cox as Patriot of the Month for his dedication, patriotism and service to our great nation.