Zachary 'Jack' Dozier, Jr. enlisted in the United States Army in 1956. Following basic training, he was assigned to Ft. Lewis, WA, first as company clerk and later as mechanic and medic. Most of his service was as a medic, where the training was on the job.

Jack chose not to elaborate on his service during Vietnam, the Berlin Crisis and the Cuban Missile Crisis. He did receive a ribbon for his role in the Berlin Crisis and was a Marksman with an M1 Rifle. He was honorably discharged in 1964.

In civilian life, Jack worked for General Electric, Whirlpool and Maytag, was involved with the Lions Club and active with his children in Little League Baseball.

Neosho Daughters are very proud to honor and recognize Zachary T. 'Jack' Dozier, Jr. as Patriot of the Month for his dedication, patriotism and service to our great nation.
