Douglas Enlisted in the Marines in 2005 following high school. Being in the Marines had been his dream since eighth grade. He completed his basic training at Camp Pendleton and was assigned to Echo Company 2/7. He was honorably discharged in 2009.

During his service, Douglas participated in both Operation Iraqi Freedom at Falluja, Iraq and in Operation Enduring Freedom at Sangin, Afghanistan. He says of his unit, "the 2/7 was well known on the front, to go where no one else wants to go."

Douglas is married to Katrina and they have two Australian Shepherds, Brigg and Griffin.

Ozark Spring daughters are proud of Lance Corporal Douglas Ray Tripp and honored to recognize him as Patriot of the Month for his dedicated patriotic service to his community and our great nation.
