Marc E. Schneider

United States Marine Corps

Sponsored by:
Sainte Genevieve Settlement Chapter, NSDAR

Marc E. Schneider was born on April 28, 1964 in Festus, Missouri to Korean War Veteran and Patriot of the Month Honoree Jackie "Jack" Ray Schneider and Jeannette (Seals) Schneider. He grew up in the Festus, Missouri area and graduated from Festus High School in May 1982.

Marc was in the Marine Corps reserves from November 1981 to August 1982 and reported for basic training in November 1982 at Marine Corps Recruit Depot San Diego, CA. After boot camp, Marc was assigned to "A" School in Millington; TN, then "B" School (MCAS) in Beaufort, SC.

From 1982 to 1986, Marc was deployed to Iwakuni, Japan, Okinawa Japan, Yechon, Korea, Subic Bay Philippines, Seoul, Korea then back to Beaufort. He rotated through these six (6) bases two times.

Marc was meritoriously promoted to Private First Class in 1982, Corporal in 1985 and Sergeant in 1986.

From March 1986 to September 1992, Marc was then stationed in Dallas, Texas, Miramar, California – Top Gun (maintenance), Yuma, Arizona, Panama City, Florida, Cherry Point, North Carolina, Point Mago, California, Nellies AFB, Las Vegas and many more.

In 1991, Marc was a Drill Instructor at Paris Island, South Carolina and was honorably discharged in September 1992.

Marc re-enlisted in 1993 in Lemoore, California where he was attended F18 training school. He is trained as an F18 Electrical Technician and a F-4 J/S Electrical Technician.

While in the service, Marc received an Expert Rifle and Pistol Medal, Navy Achievement Medal, National Defense Medal, Good Conduct Medal with 3 stars and 2 Unit Deployment Ribbons.

The most interesting thing Marc saw while in the Marine Corps were the different cultures.

The best piece of advice he learned – "If You're Not 15 Minutes Early – You're Late!"

After Marc's military career, he worked for Kimberly-Clark Aviation and Gulfstream Aerospace Corporation, where he earned his Masters' Degree and Ph.D. in Business. He, along with this wife, Gwen, currently own and operate Atlantic Industrial Supply in Savannah, Georgia.

The Sainte Genevieve Settlement is proud to sponsor Marc as Patriot of the Month and thank him for his service.
