Stanley Egbert

United States Army

Sponsored by:
Henry County Chapter, NSDAR

Stanley Egbert lives on a farm near Windsor, Missouri. He and his wife, Elaine, have two children, Will and Charla. They were married before he went to Vietnam. Stanley was drafted and entered the service on May 6, 1968.

He served in the Infantry. After Basic Training at Fort Leonard in Missouri. He had Advanced Training at Fort Lewis, state of Washington.

Stanley served his country in Vietnam. He received the following awards: Bronze Star, Air Medal and Army Commendation Award. He was offered but did not accept the Purple Heart because he did not think he was deserving of the award.

People most often told him to "stay safe" when he was in the service.

Stanley is a member of the VFW and the First Christian Church in Windsor Missouri where he grew up. He enjoys attending the Henry County DAR Veterans café which serves breakfast and provides a place for coffee and conversation once a month.
