Tom Satterly

United States Army

Sponsored by:
Saint Charles Chapter, NSDAR

Mr. Satterly entered the United States Army in February 1986 and was discharged in Dec. 2010. He is a highly decorated combat veteran, having served in the Army, the last 20 in the US Military's most elite Tier One unit, Delta Force. He was involved in, and led, some of our nation's most important military campaigns.

Tom fought in and was portrayed in the Oscar Winning 2001 film: Black Hawk Down which was the longest sustained firefight since Vietnam. As a member of Delta Force, he was deployed countless times and led hundreds of missions including the capture of Saddam Hussein. He is the recipient of numerous medals including a Silver Star, 4 Bronze Stars, 1 for Valorous acts, and he was the first American to attend German Ranger School after competing against hundreds of Soldiers to win the singular honor.

Mr. Satterly continues to fight and win his own "silent war" off the battlefield after coming within seconds of taking his own life and becoming a veteran suicide statistic. He speaks to groups openly and honestly of his mental and emotional struggles in the hope that he has saved the lives of others who believed they had to suffer in silence and make it alone or not at all.

Today, he and his wife and partner, Jen are co-Founders and co-CEOs of All Secure Foundation, a non-profit organization serving Special Operation warriors and their families reconnect and heal on the Homefront. Their organization has grown to serve thousands of combat families.

Tom's best-selling book, "All Secure: A Special Operations Soldier's Fight to Survive on the Battlefield and the Homefront", was released on November 5, 2019 is available at all major booksellers.
